Mortgage's Notice of Intention to Foreclose and of Sale.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage dated the 13th day of September, 1888, made by Keawekane [w] and Kalua [k] her husband, of Lahaina, Island of Maui, to Jose Espinda of said Lahaina, recorded in the office of the Registrar of Conveyances in Liber 112 on pages 197, 198 and 199, I, Ellen G. Lyman, of Hilo, Island of Hawaii, the assignee of said mortgage by various mesne assignments, intend to foreclose the said mortgage for a breach of the conditions in said mortgage contained, to wit: the non-payment of both the principal and interest when due.

Notice is also hereby given that all and singular the lands, tenements and hereditaments in said mortgage deed contained and described will be sold at public auction at the auction room of James F. Morgan on Queen street, Honolulu, Island of Oahu, on Monday the 18th day of January A. D. 1897, at 12 o'clock noon of said day.

The property in said mortgage is thus described, viz:

A certain parcel of land situated in Lahaina on the Island of Maui together with all the privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging and all the buildings thereon, and bounded and described as follows:

"E hoomaka ana ma ke kiki Hikina o keia ma kahi e pili ana i ke alaani aupuni a me ke Makalele aia, a e holo ana; He 42 1/2'. Ko 1 kaula ma ke Makalele; Ak 54 1/2'. REMEMBER AND REMIND.

The Fate of a Prominent Preacher in Illinois

Late in November the following shocking story was wired from Bloomington, Illinois: Jas. Miller, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Bloomington, was found murdered and robbed in an alley at Decatur, Ill., this morning. The revolver with which the crime was committed was lying by the dead man's side. His pockets were rifled, and his gold watch was missing. The murder was evidently committed by foot-pads. Miller had written a note to his son, Dr. John Miller, in Decatur, stating that he would visit him today, and had evident by just arrived from Bloomington. Miller was one of the ablest and best known ministers in Illinois.

Pile-up of Clubhouses.

Philadelphia is to have the biggest clubhouse in the world erected on land owned by Board, Sanson, Fifteenth and Maravan streets, that has cost $250,000. It is to be the home of the Union League. The building, which are to be demolished to make room for it, embraces some of the most notorious in the Quaker City. One of them is the structure from the garret window of which an unclad drunken inmate named Nola Woods, lashed a crowd on the evils of city government for over an hour until a reporter managed to see away the bolted trap-door to make way for the admission of persons interested in suppressing her, and whose expenses of the Philadelphia gas trust finally landed Yerkes of Chicago and City Treasurer Mercer of Philadelphia in the penitentiary. That garret window speech is credited with having broken up the Philadelphia gas trust.

A Spendthrift Prince.

Albert Edward of Wales is the greatest spendthrift in the world, according to the London Figaro, which asserts that he has spent $50,000,000 in thirty-three years. He has received $25,000,000 from the English nation, $5,000,000 more for traveling expenses and special allowances, and has private debts amounting to $20,000,000. The redeeming feature of the Prince's extravagance lies in the fact that his money goes into circulation and helps trade.

Mother—Don't eat your pie now, Johnnie. Save it until the last.
Johnnie—Say, maw, I don't distrust you, but the kid who swiped my pie at the picnic said the same thing.—Adams Freeman.

Looking.

"They are a curious couple."
"Yes?"
"Yes. She cares for nothing on earth but looks and he—well, he's very visionary."—Detroit Tribune.

No Laughing Matter.

Kind Old Gentleman (to small boy crying on the step)—What is the matter, little boy?
Small Boy—I-p-pop is putting down e-carpet.
"And does that unpleasant task of your father make you so sorry, then?"
"N-n-no; pop p-p-pounded his thumb!"
"Ah, sympathy for your father's pain—is that what makes you weep?"
"N-n-no! I l-l-laughed!"—Christian Advocate.

Unwholesome Quarters.

The greed of landlords and the indifference of masters kill servant girls every year.—Boston Journal.

The place for the memorial to Sir Walter Scott in Westminster Abbey has now been finally selected by the dean of Westminster. The place chosen lies between the memorials of the Duke of Argyll and Oliver Goldsmith, a half-arch in the south wall or poets' corner trans- pt. It is a prominent place and the late dean, Dr. Stanley, always had a desire that Sir Walter Scott's bust should fill this niche.
